Kaba Ilco Product Truck at GPLA Monday, May 14 at 6:30 pm Special Invitation to DVC Members

The Kaba Ilco product Truck will be at a special GPLA meeting on Monday, May 14, starting at 6:30 pm. Jerry Buckley and Diane Humphries will be presenting to attendees the latest innovations in the Ilco key machine line, as well as the Kaba E-Plex products including their latest wireless products. There's no need to RSVP. Just show up and enjoy!

Assa Abloy products will be presented at this month's DVC meeting.

- Accredited Lock Supply, by way of special arrangement with ALOA, will be hosting a special Certified Fire Door Inspector class on June 28-29 in Secaucus, NJ. DVC member and ALOA president, Tom Demont, will be the instructor. This class will teach students the proper methods used to conduct annual fire doors inspections as now required under NFPA 80. The 2-day class is intensive and you are required to pass an exam to earn your certification, but it's well worth it to make yourself "THE" person at your facility who understands the ramifications of this fire code requirement. More information and a list of class prerequisites can be found at acclock.com/classes.
- DVC members are now being billed directly from the National office. Please help the national treasurer by being sure to send your dues to the address indicated on the invoice.
- DVC Treasurer Steve Berger is currently in the hospital. We wish him a speedy recovery.
- Our chapter now has a new caterer for meals at our general membership meeting. Come for the food...stay for the education! (Oh, and bring a doggy bag.) Says national president, John Truempy, "We now have better food than Parx Racing!"
- DVC is having a clearance sale! We're selling DVC hats for $5 and shirts for $10. Stock up now before they're gone!
- The DVC May meeting will be on TUESDAY, May 29. Long-time associate member, Jim Handschuh, will be demonstrating Advantex products. Door hardware expert, Carl Dean, will be with Jim.
